

Wisconsin Museum of Quilts and Textiles
Fifth Annual Holiday Cookie Sale
November 29-December 2, 2007
Cookie Bakers Wanted!
Cookie Buyers Wanted!

The fifth annual WMQT Holiday Cookie Sale will take place at the Cedar Creek Settlement, ( Corner of Bridge & Washington) during Christmas in the Country. The dates are Thursday evening, November 29, through Sunday, December 2, 2007.

We are asking all bakers to help by baking six or more dozen small holiday cookies (and/or bars) for our fifth cookie sale. All proceeds will profit the Wisconsin Museum of Quilts and Textiles. Please make small cookies or bars no larger than 1 ¼ inches (see illustration). This will be helpful in fitting a variety of cookies into the special packaging box.

Please bring your favorite small, fancy, butter, spritz, pressed, shaped, dropped, pinwheel, or rolled cookies. This year small bar cookies, homemade candies, homemade trail mix, and purchased cans of quality mixed nuts are also being accepted. Any quantity over six dozen will be gladly received.

Please deliver your baked goods in throw-away boxes on Saturday, and Sunday, November 24, and 25, to the Material Matters Quilt Shop (corner of Washington & Columbia), or to the Museum Farmhouse during regular business hours. Cookies may also be delivered directly to the packaging location, which is Betty Moye's quilt studio. Please call her at (262) 377-4482 for directions.

We most kindly ask the favor of these special requests. Please no meringue cookies, as they crumble. Bar cookies will be offered in separate packaging. Please do not bring chocolate chip or peanut butter cookies as they tend to flavor other cookies.

We appreciate any help you can give us. We are also accepting candies such as fudge, divinity, peanut brittle, and small, chocolate covered pretzels. The nut cornucopias were a big hit last year. They will be featured again. Please call Betty Moye should you be interested in baking, helping in sales, or placing orders for candies, cookies or nuts before the sale. For questions please call Betty at the above number.

Cookies will be accepted until 5PM on November 25. Cookies and goodies will be packaged on November 26, 27 & 28. Thank you in advance for helping toward this fun and worthy cause! Please share your cookie recipes with the museum for a Museum Holiday Cookbook. Please send them to Luella Doss at her email: raspberryhill1@msn.com, or mail them to her at 2277 Edgewood Dr., Grafton, WI 53024

Sincerely,

Betty & Luella
